

Bamba Thiam, President Afrisystems

Mr. Bamba Thiam is the founder of Afrisystems, an international business consulting company based in Dakar, Senegal. Mr. Thiam has over 10 years of experience in sales, consulting, design, development, implementation, training, support and management of information technology solutions and services in the San Francisco-Silicon Valley Bay Area. He holds several industry leading certifications such as Microsoft MCP, MCSE, Cisco CCNA, CCNP, CCAI and is also an ITIL certified.

Mr. Thiam studied Computer Science and Mathematics and holds a Bachelor of Science in Business Management and an MBA from the University of Phoenix. He held key positions in sales, engineering, consulting, training and management at major Silicon Valley companies such as Office Depot, Remedy Corporation, Peregrine Systems and BMC software.

He belongs to many professional organizations such as the East Bay telecommunications and wireless professionals/ Bay Area Cisco User Group, a member of the National Black MBA Association, the Monterey Bay International Trade Association, member of the Bay Area Brazilian Chamber of Commerce and a member of the Microsoft Information Technology Advisory Council.

Mr. Thiam enjoys being a resource for information, education, and personal networking for people seeking connections, technology, agriculture, energy, and business resources globally. He speaks fluent French and Spanish. He is an accomplished business technology executive with expertise and in-depth knowledge of information technology and services management.