

MS LERATO DOROTHY MATABOGE
Minister (Economic)
Embassy of the Republic of South Africa

Ms Lerato D. Mataboge is the Minister Counsellor responsible for economic and commercial affairs at the Embassy of the Republic of South Africa, based in Washington, DC. Her responsibilities at the Embassy involve building and maintaining South Africa's economic relations with the US, implementing South Africa's trade policy, facilitating market access for South Africa for trade in goods and services, as well as investment promotion and facilitation. Prior to assuming this position, Ms Mataboge was the Director for Southern Africa at the South African Department of Trade and Industry, responsible for maintaining South Africa's bilateral relations with SADC member states, negotiating Bilateral Investment Treaties, overseeing the implementation of Spatial Development Initiatives aimed at fostering infrastructure development, intra-regional trade and regional integration, as well as facilitating and promoting South African investment in the southern Africa region. Ms Mataboge holds a BA (Honors) degree in Law and International Relations from the University of the Witwatersrand in Johannesburg, as well as a Masters degree in International Political Economy (International Trade and Global Finance) from the University of Warwick in the United Kingdom.