Michael K. Durney, Partner of Ventana Funding Capital Resources and President of Mampeza Industrial, SARL, Benguela, Angola, is an international fisheries expert and investment banker providing fisheries consultation to the Irish, Australians, Portuguese and Angolan governments.

Durney's family acquired its commercial interests in Angola commencing in 1968, consisting mainly of a fish cannery, can-making factory, a cardboard box fabricator and a farming operation. Durney's major holding corporation, Mampeza, continued its active production and operation throughout the Angolan Civil War, which lasted over 25 years, ending in 1994. Durney's U.S. businesses consist primarily of investment banking and asset-based loans.
