

PATTY LUNDEEN
MANAGER, DESIGN

WET

Patty Lundeen joined WET in 2002 as a Project Designer and is presently the Manager of Design. She has particular interest in master planning and designing water elements and public spaces within larger and complex sites.

Since joining WET Design in 2002, Patty's portfolio includes projects in the United States, the Middle East, Europe, and Asia. A sampling of notable projects is the Bellagio Conservatory in Las Vegas, Nevada; Branson Landing in Branson, Missouri; Bremerton Harborside Waterfront (Phase I and II) in Bremerton, Washington; Maryland Plaza in St. Louis, Missouri; PETRO China Headquarters, Beijing, China; and the choreography of the water features at the Brooklyn Museum in Brooklyn, New York.

Prior to joining WET, Patty was an Associate for the Margie Ruddick Landscape in Germantown, Pennsylvania. There she was involved in all aspects of residential, institutional, and public landscape design on a variety of projects in Asia and North America.

Patty has a Masters Degree in Landscape Architecture and Regional Planning from the University of Pennsylvania and is a LEED AP. She also holds a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree from the Cleveland Institute of Art in Cleveland, Ohio. In her free time Patty works in her art studio making paintings and drawings.
