

Michela Ritondo
Senior Tax Official
Fiscal Department for Foreign Investments
Federal Public Service Finance of Belgium

Michela Ritondo is a senior tax official of the Federal Public Service Finance. She has a master degree in Economics of the “Université de Mons-Hainaut” and a certificate of Public Management at the Solvay Business School of the “Université Libre de Bruxelles”.

She is currently working as an international tax expert at the Fiscal Department for Foreign Investments. In that status she also represents the Belgian FPS Finance in different consultative bodies at the federal and regional level that are dealing with inbound investments and takes an active part in different Belgian economic missions abroad.

Before joining this service she was the founding head of the Transfer Pricing Audit Unit which enabled her to specialize in the fiscal treatment of cross border transactions within multinational enterprises.

The Fiscal Department for Foreign Investments is in charge of assisting and attracting foreign investors to realize new investments projects in Belgium. Michela Ritondo regularly presents the numerous tax assets of Belgium (Notional Interest Deduction, measures in favour of R&D, tax shelter for film industry,...) and assumes the role of promoter abroad in a way to encourage foreign investments in Belgium.
