

Middlebury Institute of International Studies at Monterey

Dr. Renee Jourdenais, Dean
Graduate School of Translation,
Interpretation, and Language Education

Middlebury Institute of
International Studies at Monterey

Who are we?

- Graduate school, founded 1955, to create positive international outcomes through people educated in language and culture
 - Monterey Institute of Foreign Studies
 - Monterey Institute of International Studies (MIIS)
 - Middlebury Institute of International Studies at Monterey (MIIS)
- In 2005, we began our merger with Middlebury College, VT. Completed in 2009.
- Graduate professional training in diverse areas, all with global impact and all with language as a component of the degree programs

Middlebury Institute of
International Studies at Monterey

Believe that...

- Complex global problems require interdisciplinary research to fully understand and multi-sector collaborations – public, private, nonprofit – to move them in positive directions.
- This needs to be integrated with language training, intercultural competency, and working with and through translators & interpreters

Middlebury Institute of
International Studies at Monterey

Master's Degree Programs

- Development practice and policy (including MPA)
- Global impact management (MBA)
- International environmental policy
- International trade and economic diplomacy
- Non-proliferation and terrorism studies
- International education management
- Language teacher education
- Translation, interpretation, and localization management

Middlebury Institute of
International Studies at Monterey

Research Centers & Initiatives

- James C. Martin Center for Non-Proliferation Studies (Vienna and DC)
- Center for Blue Economy
- Center for Conflict Studies
- Center for Social Impact Learning
- Graduate Initiative in Russian Studies
- Mixed-Methods Evaluation, Training and Analysis (META) Lab
- MIIS Cyber Initiative
- Monterey Terrorism Research and Education Program

Middlebury Institute of
International Studies at Monterey

Who are the students?

- 25-35 years old
- Most have lived and worked overseas
- All have learned at least one, and sometimes as many as 8 languages
- 30% of faculty and student body are international
- Committed to incorporating language and intercultural training into their professional path
- Intend to go on to professional careers that lead them to engage with – and change -- the global community

Middlebury Institute of
International Studies at Monterey

Why Monterey?

- Language!
- Local, yet international community reflects our campus community
- Opportunities for students to engage in real projects
 - Language Teaching, Translation, Interpretation, Localization, Marine Economy, Agriculture, Water, Conflict, Sustainable Business...everything!

Middlebury Institute of
International Studies at Monterey

Certificate/Professional Programs

- International Development and Social Change
- Conflict Resolution
- Language Program Administration
- Language Teaching
- Nonproliferation Studies
- Spanish Community Interpreting
- Impact Investing and Social Enterprise Management
- Terrorism Studies
- Translation & Interpretation Professional Programs
- Summer Intensive and Customized Language Training