

MARTIN LEWIN

Martin Lewin is a partner in the Washington DC Law Firm of Kalik Lewin. Mr. Lewin has over twenty years experience in international trade and international commercial matters, including finance, with a particular emphasis on international business development. Mr. Lewin has been active in China since 1990, working in products ranging from industrial and environmental equipment, to apparel, chemicals, agricultural products and fabricated metal products.

Mr. Lewin also currently serves as Chief Operating Officer and General Counsel of Carhart Global Market Services and a Partner in the law firm of Kalik Lewin. Carhart GMS, a company with offices in the Maryland, Chicago and Beijing, specializes in providing comprehensive, hands-on China market entry services, including complete business management and sales representation.

Previously, Mr. Lewin was a partner in the Washington office of Mudge Rose Guthrie Alexander and Ferdon, and a partner in the Washington office of Aitken Irvin Lewin Berlin Vrooman & Cohn. He also served as an advisor to Paula Stern, former Chair of the U.S. International Trade Commission, and as a staff member of the Subcommittee on International Organizations of the House of Representatives International Relations Committee.

Mr. Lewin received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Economics from the Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania, majoring in accounting, and a Juris Doctor degree from the University of Pennsylvania Law School. He is the author of numerous articles on international trade and transportation matters.

With his varied experience as a U.S. Government official, an attorney in private practice, a business consultant and sales representative, Mr. Lewin provides his clients a unique perspective on doing business in China and for addressing the issues that arise in implementing a China business strategy.
